

Compliments of Ben and Jerry's
ALLOCATE THE FEDERAL BUDGET

Here's your chance to allocate the discretionary budget. What are your priorities? How would the pie look if you could choose how to slice it?

GO TO
<http://www.benjerry.com/americanpie/>
and follow the directions to create your own budget

Discretionary Spending refers to the portion (about one-third) of the federal budget managed through an annual appropriations process, where Congress not only gets to set spending levels for a wide variety of government programs and services, but gets to choose to increase or decrease funding for those programs at any time, too.

